

Website Privacy Statement

Elemental Services & Consulting, Inc. (ESCO) is committed to protecting the privacy of visitors to our website. When you provide personal information to us, we protect the privacy and confidentiality of that information. ESCO's goal is to collect and use only information that we consider necessary for legitimate business interests.

When you browse through this website, you do so anonymously. ESCO does not collect personal information about you unless you voluntarily provide it to us.

One way you might provide us with personal information is by sending us an email, whether through your own email software or using a "Contact Us" form on the site. If you send us an email, your email address and the contents of your message will be collected. This includes text characters and any audio, video, and graphic information formats included in the message. Your electronic mail address and the information included in your message will be used to respond to you, to address issues you identify, or to improve this site. Your email address will not be used for commercial purposes, and ESCO will not sell or otherwise distribute your email address to any third party.

Our servers automatically log information about visits to this website in the normal course of establishing and maintaining web connections. The server logs record statistical information, such as visitors' IP addresses, and the time and duration of visit. We collect this information so that we may continuously improve our website content. These statistics are reported in aggregate form only. We do not link server log information to any other data in a way that would enable us to identify individual visitors.

This website makes use of cookies. Cookies are pieces of information transferred to the browsing computer and stored for record-keeping purposes. Knowing how a site visitor is using the site through cookies enables us to tailor our content and services to more effectively meet visitors' needs. It also enables us to improve the quality of your visit by making sure that the website is properly formatted for your computer and web browser.

ESCO uses industry standard security measures to protect the information under our control, including firewalls and other security measures. Although the inherent dangers of the Internet means we cannot guarantee the protection of your information against loss, misuse, or alteration, ESCO works hard to protect all of your personal information. Security procedures have been integrated into the design, implementation, and day-to-day operations of this website as part of our continuing commitment to the security of electronic content as well as the electronic transmission of information.

ESCO is strongly committed to protecting personal information collected through this website against unauthorized access, use, or disclosure. That is why ESCO limits employee access to personal information collected through this website to those employees who need access to the information to perform their official duties, and those employees follow appropriate procedures to protect against any improper disclosure of that information.

This site is a general audience website and is intended to be used by adults and teenagers interested in ESCO. It is not intended for children, and ESCO does not want to collect any personal information for users who are under the age of 13. ESCO does not knowingly collect personal information from children or create profiles of children through the site. However, any personal information submitted by email will be treated as though it was submitted by an adult.

The development of ESCO's policies and procedures for the protection of personal information is an ongoing process. Due to changes in technology and legal requirements we may revise this Website Privacy Statement from time to time. We suggest that you bookmark this page so that you may check periodically to see if any changes have been made.

This website may contain links to third party sites. ESCO is not responsible for the collection of personal information or the security or privacy of such information on third party sites.

If you have any questions about this statement or our handling of personal information please contact us by email at info@escoinfo.com.
